Professional Summary

I am an 18 year old backend web developer who has experience working with python and django. I have also worked with Git, Github, HTML, CSS, AWS s3 buckets, Heroku, and postgresql. I have recently built 3 fullstack websites that taught and gave me the experiences I needed. I have good communication skills and I am an avid learner. I am a good researcher and problem solver. The errors I have encountered in python and django strengthened my debugging skills and problem solving.
